Dear Ms. Popova:

We have reviewed your amended registration statement and have the following comments. In some of our comments, we may ask you to provide us with information so we may better understand your disclosure.

Please respond to this letter by amending your registration statement and providing the requested information. If you do not believe our comments apply to your facts and circumstances or do not believe an amendment is appropriate, please tell us why in your response.

1. We note your response to comment 9 in our letter dated January 22, 2014. Please revise your disclosure to clarify what type of business Most Marketing, Inc. is and Ms. Popova's relationship to that entity, and describe more fully the nature of her fiduciary duty to that company and the conflict with her duties to the registrant. Also please clarify what conflicts, actual or potential, exist with respect to your consultants and advisors.
2. Please revise to provide examples of potential "self-dealing" transactions that could possibly occur due to the overlapping businesses of the company and Most Marketing, Inc.

We urge all persons who are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosure in the filing to be certain that the filing includes the information the Securities Act of 1933 and all applicable Securities Act rules require. Since the company and its management are in possession of all facts relating to a company's disclosure, they are responsible for the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures they have made.

You may contact Joseph Cascarano, Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3376, or Robert Littlepage, Accountant Branch Chief, at (202) 551-3361, if you have questions regarding comments on the financial statements and related matters.
